

York Art Workers' Association 2000 Programme

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE VENUE FOR 2000 IS JACOB'S WELL, UNLESS STATED OTHERWISE

10 January 2000

Stephen Warburton Yorkshire Wildlife Trust and YAWA member talking about hedgerows

7 February 2000

Visit to The Bar Convent, Blossom Street, York

6 March 2000

Mary Butcher Basketmaker

A second chance to meet Mary and see her work.

3 April 2000

Nicola Wray from English Heritage will talk about the work of Survey (that of the old RCHME) and on her own involvement as an Investigator with Emergency Recording - a fascinating insight

Saturday 6 May 2000

Visit to Liverpool. This will be a full day's trip travelling by train to fit in as many of the wonderful sites of the city as possible. For further details call 01904 611687

5 June 2000

Anthony Robinson Blacksmith, - one of the avante garde of the British Artist Blacksmiths Association

visiting from Shropshire

3 July 2000 (members only)

A walking tour of York led by local historian Hugh Murray. The tour will end at 68 Micklegate - a delightful 17th century interior - one of the secrets of York .....Meet at the fountain in Parliament Street at 7.00pm

7 August 2000

Social evening. Details to be announced

4 September 2000 (To be announced)

2 October 2000 (date and venue to be confirmed)

Gillian Clarke - a very special evening for the York Art Workers Association when the esteemed poet will talk about her craft

6 November 2000 (to be confirmed)

Charles Gurrey - Architectural, carver and sculptor - and member of the York Art Workers Association

4 December 2000 (Sixth Annual General Meeting)

Speaker to be announced

Meetings at Jacob's Well, Trinity Lane (off Micklegate) York, 7.00pm unless otherwise specified

Admission: members £2.00 non-members £3.00. For further details contact: Sue Taylor Tel: 01904 611687