

York Art Workers' Association 2001 Programme

8 January 2001

'Artworkers - What are we worth?' A debate led by Lisa Chaney to consider the issues on how artworkers are perceived today in a world of machine-made mass culture

5 February 2001

Harriet Fraser, founder and organiser of Memorials by Artists will talk about the organisation and it's members' work

5 March 2001

"Here's one I prepared earlier".....several members will talk for a few minutes each about one of their pieces of work

2 April 2001

'Rush Matters' Felicity Irons harvests bulrushes, hand dries them and weaves them in both traditional and contemporary ways

14 May 2001 (members only)

Visit to Park Grove School, York. The Headmaster will give members a tour of the building, designed by Walter Brierley. It has recently been restored after fire damage with an award winning scheme. Meet at the school at 7.00pm

Saturday 2 June 2001

Day trip to Hull/Beverley. Details to be confirmed

Meetings at Jacob's Well, Trinity Lane (off Micklegate) York, 7.00pm unless otherwise specified

Admission: members £2.00 non-members £3.00. For further details contact: Jill Mans Tel: 01904 631320

NB: The programme may be subject to change

2 July 2001 (members only)

Visit to the Estate Office at Escrick Park to see innovative buildings designed by award-winning architect Chris Walker.

Meet at the Estate Office at 7.30pm

Saturday 4 August 2001

Social evening. Visit to the workshops of Charles Gurrey, Peter Coates and John Holt. Details to be confirmed

3 September 2001

Craftsman bookbinder, David Sellers, will talk about his work which is in many major international collections

1 October 2001 (members only)

Visit to the National Railway Museum, York to view the special collection of railway art rarely seen by the public. Meet at the Railway Museum at 7.00pm

5 November 2001

Brian Russell - the highly regarded Blacksmith from County Durham will talk about his work

10 December 2001 (Seventh Annual General Meeting)

AGM will be followed by a talk from Glasgow artist Alexander Stoddard on his monumental sculptures - and the Christmas Party